We Will Rock You: "One Night Of Queen" Concert

By Mike Kessler Community Member Friday at 2:47 a.m.

The rock band Queen was formed in London in 1971. Lead singer Freddie Mercury died in 1991. Works" will perform their tribute concert "One Night Of Queen" at the Raue Center For The Art

This isn't just another Queen tribute act, this is a successful touring band and stage show enjoyed

In 2005, when members of Queen were touring with "Bad Company" singer Paul Rodgers as "Q Mullen & The Works" were invited backstage to meet original Queen members Brian May & Roger

Brian May has said "Gary bears a remarkable likeness to Freddie, not only in emulating Freddie accurately reproducing Freddie's live vocal style and range."

Brian May has also said "This is the only tribute show, so far, that we really recommend to our fans

Gary Mullen could easily join Queen as their new soundalike singer, just as Yes has hired new sound Journey hired soundalike singer Arnel Pineda.

Gary Mullen & The Works have many songs to choose from since Queen has 18 #1 singles around included: Another One Bites The Dust, Bohemian Rhapsody, Crazy Little Thing Called Love, Kill Pressure, We Will Rock You & We Are The Champions.

Mullen named his band The Works after the title of the Queen album "The Works" released in 1984. The show is this Saturday night (April 2) at 7:30 in the Raue Center, 26 N. Williams St., Crystal Lake. For more information see the websites below.
