

Blues Traveler Takes on a Packed Raue

Rock jam band Blues Traveler brought its elaborate live show to the Raue Center for the Arts this past Sunday.

By Jonathan White August 25, 2011

One of the most anticipated acts in the Raue's season, rock jam band Blues Traveler tore down the house to a packed to capacity theater, Sunday night.

The group rolled through fan favorites and nationwide hits like "But Anyway", "Hook", and even brought out American Idol's ninth season runner-up Crystal Bowersox to help sing along with the group to "Run-Around".

Getting ready to release a new album and celebrate 25 years as band, Blues Traveler showed the Raue why this band has been going strong through the years.