

WGN's Steve Cochran Brings New Year's Eve Comedy to Raue Center

Ring the New Year in a little early with Chicago comedians at the Raue Center for the Arts in Crystal Lake.

Posted by Stephanie Price (Editor) | December 18, 2013 at 01:26 AM

A limited number of tickets remain for Steve Cochran's New Year's Eve Comedy Show at the Raue Center for the Arts.

Steve Cochran, of WGN Radio 720 AM, and fellow comedians Mike Toomey, Tim Benker and John Dacosse are scheduled to appear at 7 p.m. Dec. 31, at the Raue Center for the Arts, 26 N. Main St., Crystal Lake.

"The best in stand up comedy means you will have a great time saying goodbye to 2013 at Raue Center, and still get a jump on your 2014 beauty sleep," according to Raue Center press release.

Cochran reprises his role as one of the Fab Four of Chicago Comedy in this "early bird" New Years Eve show.

Cochran will be joined by Toomey, a regular on the WGN-Chicago Morning News, and Benker, a Chicago stand-up comedy veteran. DaCosse, from Steve's "C-Team" serves as host for the night.

The evening also includes a countdown to "Virtual Midnight."

Tickets are currently $45, and bump up to $50 after Dec. 24.

Tickets can be purchased online at rauecenter.org, or via the Box Office at 815-356-9212.