Storytime Series at the Raue Center ran Saturdays in December.

A fun time for families, it was free admission to the public. Special guest storytellers each week read stories to children and families. Hot chocolate and treats such as candy canes, cookies and cupcakes were also provided to the guests.

This past weekend, 15-20 children attended and guest story tellers Amy Ferraro and Chris Davis provided the readings.

The books read this week were: How the Grinch Stole Christmas by Dr. Seuss, The Night Before Christmas by Clement C. Moore, The Snow Must Go On! by Molly Wigand and Santa Knows by Cynthia and Greg Smith.
