Crystal Lake's Raue Center finalizes new lineup

By

The Raue Center of Crystal Lake has everything from musical artists to theater to an acrobatic group to its 2012-2013 lineup.

The Raue will feature John Michael Coppola as he performs "A Jersey Voice" Sept. 22. Coppola acted in the Broadway show "Jersey Boys." He will perform many different type of musical styles.

Grammy-award winner Amy Grant will perform Oct. 6. Her most recent Grammy was Best Southern, Country, or Bluegrass Gospel Album with her album "Rock of Ages ... Hymns & Faith" in 2006.

Golden Dragons Acrobatics will perform Nov. 16. They represent traditional Chinese culture while they contort their bodies and twirl through the air in the acrobatic show.

In addition:

• Peter Yarrow will perform folk music April 20. Yarrow was in the folk trio Peter, Paul and Mary.

• Larry Miller is a comedian who has been seen on "Seinfeld" and "Curb Your Enthusiasm." He will perform Jan 12.

• Matthew and Gunnar Nelson will perform a tribute concert to their dad, Ricky Nelson, in Ricky Nelson Remembered. Their show will be Jan. 19.

• The Irish House Party will provide audiences with an Irish experience with traditional music and dances. Annual shows, such as the Northwest Indiana Symphony Orchestra's Holiday Pops Concert The Nutcracker, an Evening of Percussion and Nothin' Up My Sleeve will also be featured at the Raue Center next season.
