CRYSTAL LAKE – The fourth annual Friends of Chilama Photo Contest will run through May 14.

The contest is sponsored by Friends of Chilama, a member of U.S.-El Salvador Sister Cities and a McHenry County organization that sisters a small village in El Salvador and works to promote human rights for the rural poor. Money raised will help support a health care project and the development of a women's sewing cooperative.

The photo contest has three categories: people and pets; nature and wildlife; and babies and toddlers.

The winner in each category will receive a prize of $100. There also will be one winner in the youth category, which includes all students through grade eight, and a $25 prize will be given.

In addition, all winners and five honorable mentions in each category will have the honor of his or her photo displayed for one month in an exhibit at the Raue Center for the Arts in Crystal Lake.

The entry fee is $10 a photo for adults and $5 for youth. The fee should be in an envelope and taped to the back of the photo mat.
