Put your running shoes on and get out to downtown Crystal Lake to support the arts.

Sunday morning hundreds of runners and walkers will fill downtown to participate in the 15th Annual Bob Blazier Run For The Arts. The 5k event will take place Sunday, May 6, at Raue Center For The Arts, 26 N. Williams Street.

Runners rate is $35 and registration for walkers is $20. Register by clicking here or call the box office at (815) 356-9212 for more information.

Registration and packet pickups will take place from 7 to 7:45 a.m. Race and walkers will take off at 8 a.m.

If you're not in the mood, or shape, to run or walk, there will be still be a lot to enjoy, including face painters, balloon artists, music and puppeteers. And parents can have their kids participate in the Kids' 50-yard dash and Sack Races.

According to Raue, all of the proceeds will benefit Raue Center's programs including Williams Street Repertory (Raue Center's in-house production company), Mission Imagination (an educational program inspiring children through the performing arts), its visual arts galleries (a space to be inspired by local artists' work), Sage Studio (all-age classes in theatre, film and improv) and its season performances.

So come walk, run or just enjoy a great event.
