

Why attend the Stargazers Ball 2013?

Anne Thompson, Local Media Solutions October 4, 2013 9:46AM

SPONSORED CONTENT By: Anne Thompson, Local Media Solutions

It's time once again for the annual Stargazers Ball, Raue Center's biggest annual fundraiser. At the Stargazers Ball, you're sure to have a great time while also giving back to the community. Read on to learn more about this fabulous event.

Fundraising for the arts

For more than a decade, Raue Center For The Arts has worked to provide the community of Crystal Lake with the highest quality live entertainment available. As a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, Raue Center has hosted everything from live music and theatre to standup comedy. When you attend the Stargazers Ball, you can both enjoy a fun night and help to ensure that the center continues to do great work.

An unforgettable night

When you come to the Stargazers Ball, prepare to be dazzled. The ball features a live auction, music by a live orchestra, stylish and delicious cocktails, and terrific appetizers provided by local Crystal Lake restaurants. You can also simply stop to marvel at this beautiful building, which has been carefully restored to the appearance of a Roaring Twenties-era theatre.

Hosted by Rob Elgas

The Stargazers Ball will be hosted by NBC newscaster and Crystal Lake native Rob Elgas. A several-time Emmy winner, Elgas has covered everything from the Winter Olympics to Chicago sports. He's sure to make this year's Stargazers Ball a night to remember.

The Stargazers Ball takes place at the historic Raue Center For The Arts in downtown Crystal Lake on October 5. Doors open at 7 p.m., and admission is $150. Visit Raue Center's official website at www.rauecenter.org for more information, or call (815) 356-9212 today.