

Band to present Vegas-style concert Sept. 7

News-Sun staff report September 4, 2013 5:22PM

CRYSTAL LAKE — The band, 25 or 6 to 4, will perform Sept. 7 at 8 p.m. at Raue Center For The Arts, 26 N. Williams St. This premier tribute to the legendary band Chicago supplies its “Vegas-style” show with dazzling lights and crisp execution of material from one of the best-selling American groups.

With a repertoire of music and performances covering over five decades in pop culture through television, radio and movies, 25 of 6 to 4 — The Chicago Experience offers a high-energy performance while replicating the music that captured everyone’s heart. Patrons will hear songs like “Wishing You Were Here,” “Feeling Stronger (Everyday)” and “Saturday in the Park.”

Bringing you the sweet sounds of Chicago are Adam Briel (vocals and auxiliary percussion), Brian Hemstock (vocals and auxiliary percussion), Ron Brandt (guitars, vocals and musical director), Adam Cowger (drums and auxiliary percussion), James Miller (bass guitar and vocals), John Kattke (keyboards and guitar), Terry Viano (trombone), Steve Frost (trumpet and flugelhorn), Tim Falls (tenor sax, soprano sax and flute) and Nick Krengiel (alto sax).

Tickets are $29-$35. Details, (815) 356-9212 or rauecenter.org.